Welcome to Newspatron and DroneMitra!

Hello, I'm Kumar, a certified drone pilot and storyteller, passionate about capturing the world in ways that inspire. My work spans from breathtaking aerial photography to compelling narratives that engage.

Services Description

Drone Photography & Videography (and Editing Services)

On DroneMitra, my YouTube channel, I share stunning drone videos. At Newspatron, I deliver video news with depth. My passion extends to creating impactful WordPress websites and refining them with SEO to boost your online presence.

Additional Services

Our team extends beyond drones, partnering with experts in industrial videography and photography. We're your comprehensive solution for visual storytelling, helping brands expand globally. From the inception of your project to its delivery, we craft a vision for your future. Whether it's a corporate profile, product demonstration, or specialized photography for e-commerce, fashion, or food, we cater to your needs. We also assist retail businesses like restaurants, spa clinics, or hospitals in creating engaging YouTube vlogs.

I, Amit Kumar, the founder and editor at Newspatron, am a passionate blogger who likes to blog on everything on earth and even space. Newspatron isn't just your typical news website; it's a blog that offers unique and detailed insights into a diverse array of topics. From politics to entertainment, from travel to technology, we delve into subjects that not only inform but also engage and inspire. We aren't a team of traditional journalists; instead, we source our content from reliable internet platforms, employing advanced AI tools to analyze data, generate insights, and enrich our storytelling. This approach allows us to present you with the latest in business trends, stock market analyses, tech innovations, cybersecurity tips, scientific discoveries, and the pressing matters of climate and environmental news.

To truly grasp the depth and breadth of our content, we invite you to read a few of our blogs. We're committed to providing an educational and thought-provoking experience. We value your input and encourage you to join our community, share your thoughts, and engage with our content.
